

AND I LIVE ON

The Resilience of Rwandan Genocide
Survivors of Sexual Violence

ORANGE THE WORLD CAMPAIGN WEBINAR

WORLD AIDS DAY | TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1 | 1:00 - 2:30 PM ET

Join us on World AIDS Day with human rights advocates who will share their experience of collaborating with Rwandan genocide survivors of sexual violence by documenting their stories in the 2008 book, The Men Who Killed Me. Ten years after the publication of this book, the editors returned to Rwanda to chronicle the trajectory of the genocide survivors' lives. The second edition of their research, entitled And I Live On, captures the resilience of the survivors. Proceeds from the webinar and book sales will go to Mukomeze and its Rwandan partner organization Solace Ministries to support Rwandan genocide survivors of sexual violence.

Our panelists from Rwanda, the Netherlands and Canada include:

Mama Lambert
Keynote Speaker

A genocide survivor and trauma counsellor at Solace Ministries in Rwanda. She was a finalist for the 2020 inaugural Women Building Peace Award and the recipient of the Voice Achievers Award 2019. Her biography, For Those Who Do Not Believe in Miracles by Hans Dekkers, is a profound testament to her courage and resilience.

Anne Marie de Brouwer
Panelist

She works in the field of international criminal justice, conflict-related sexual violence, human trafficking and victims' rights at Impact: Center Against Human Trafficking and Sexual Violence in Conflict located in the Netherlands. She is the co-founder of Mukomeze and one of the editors of And I Live On: The Resilience of Rwandan Genocide Survivors of Sexual Violence.

Eefje de Volder
Panelist

She is an anthropologist and lawyer working in the field of human trafficking, victims' rights and conflict-related sexual violence at Impact: Center against Human Trafficking and Sexual Violence. She is one of the editors of And I Live On: The Resilience of Rwandan Genocide Survivors of Sexual Violence.

Sandra Ka Hon Chu
Moderator

She is a lawyer and the Director of Research & Advocacy at the HIV Legal Network in Toronto, where she works on HIV-related human rights issues concerning prisons, drug policy, sex work, women and immigration. She is one of the editors of And I Live On: The Resilience of Rwandan Genocide Survivors of Sexual Violence.

Samer Muscati
Panelist

He is a Canadian human rights lawyer, documentary photographer and former journalist. He ran the International Human Rights program at University of Toronto's Faculty of Law from 2015-2019. He edited and photographed the Rwandan genocide survivors whose searing testimonials appear in And I Live On.

For more details contact: maurensurprise@gmail.com

Register Here: https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_qSKOTQ9rRrWVIHBgQRibKw

Donate Now: mukomeze.nl/en/doneer-nu/